SENT UP FOR SIXTY DAYS

As a Penalty for Stealing a Bolt of Cloth on Main Street.

Plummer Held - Omaha Boys Say They Were Buncoed-Ogden Sugar Factory Will Start Up Soon.

A man named Frank Wayne had a hearing before Judge Hall in police court on the charge of petty larceny. On Tuesday he was hanging around Reese Howell & Sons' store and acted somewhat suspiciously, so a close watch was kept on him, and in the evening he was seen to pick up a bolt of cloth from the front of the store and start down the front of the store and start does et with it. Will Howell was soon on track and rounded him up and ted him over to the police. He plead ty to the charge and was given 60 ys on the rock pile. He claims to be a miner by profession, coming here from drunk was discharged upon his promising to reform.

PLUMMER HELD.

John Plummer, the man charged with John Plummer, the man charged with a serious criminal offense, was up be-fore Justice Breeden yesterday and waived examination. It was expected that he would plead guilty as charged, because he has confessed to the police officers and others his guilt.

OMAHA BOYS BUNCOED.

Two young men giving their names as samuel Bales and S. Christensen, from Cmaha arrived in Ogden yesterday,having gained considerable more experihome a few days ago. When leaving maha they went to an employment office and arranged as they thought to he sent through to the coast, depositing the with the agency for their railroad fares, and were given a ticket to Green river. At the latter place the agent told them to buy tickets for Ogden, returning them $5.00 to purchase them. He told them to go to a Mr. White at Ogden, giving his address, and White would forward them to the coast. To their sorrow they found no such person in this city as the one to whom they were addressed, so they reported the matter to the police station, deciding that they had been buncoed. The po-lice are now looking the matter up, and trying to find some trace of the Omaha employment agency. In the meantime the boys will take in Ogden.

LOGAN.

Ralph Smith Recovering from Serious Accident. Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache County, Aug. 15.—Mr. Ralph Smith of this city, who was seriously injured in a runaway accident a day or two ago, is now progressing favorably. In company with his nephew, 18 years old, and three younger boys, he was driving up from the fields when the neckyoke broke, letting the tongue down and frightening the horses, which at once started to run. The wagon was upset and Mr. Smith and his nephew were rendered unconscious from the shock of the blows re-ceived in falling. The younger man's ceived in falling. The younger man's spinal column is thought to be affected as he has not been able to move from his bed. The three little fellows escaped without serious injury.

DIPHTHERIA IN SMITHFIELD.

A case of diphtheria was discovered in Smithfield yesterday. Dr. Budge was called and he quarantined the Amy, a little daughter of Bishop Bal-

Kicked by a Mule. Special Correspondence.

Price, Carbon Co., Aug. 15.—Prof. George Cluff, principal of the Emery Stake Academy at Castle Dale, accompanied by the academy glee club, will visit the principal wards of the Stake beginning next Sunday, and deliver a lecture at each place in the interest of education. He will be at Lawrence, Sunday, Aug. 19; Cleveland in the evening; Desert Lake, 20th; Sunnyside, 21st; Wellington, 22nd; Spring Glen, 23rd; Castle Gate, 24th; Helper, 25th; Price, 26th; Huntington, 27th; Orange-ville, 28th; Molen, 29th; Emery, 30th, and Ferron, the 31st. The academy has a very flattering future for it the coming school year. REPUBLICAN CONVENTION. The Republicans of Carbon county will hold their county convention at Castle Gate on Thursday, Aug. 39th, at which time nomination will be made for the several county offices. There is not to be a precinct overlooked, so it is said, and a nominee will come from each one of them. PATENT FOR SEED PLANTER. Frank Carroli, Ira R. Browning and others of Castle Dale have been notified by the patent office at Washington that letters patent will Issue them for a new laying-off machine in which they have been interested for months. They are looking about for a sultable location to put up a factory for manufacturing the machines. They are especially adapted to the sowing of lucern, wheat and the like, and it is claimed after being planted with these machines lucern vields at least 25 per cent more than by the old method. KICKED BY A DYING MULE. Charles Thompson of Orangeville met with a most singular accident near that town the other day. He was riding along the road on a favorite saddle mule when the animal fell in the throes of death. Thompson in attempt-ing to alight was kicked by the Missourian and received a fracture of the collar bone, which will be not only painful for several days to come, but will keep him from work, it is said, for several weeks.
